

#ChangeTheStory

We believe life is a story.

Every day is a new page.

Every year, a new chapter.

And if it's your life, it's your story to tell.

To author, to craft, to create, to write.

If your image has been shared without your permission,
if you've been blackmailed, sextorted, coerced, harassed,
if your life has become a nightmare that someone else is writing for you,
we have your back.

We're Need Help Now. We can help you take back your image.

You(th) are not alone.

You(th) are not helpless.

You(th) are always stronger than you think.

You(th) have the power to change the story.
